

The Inaugural OU-WUT joint symposium on physical organic chemistry 2022

July 1st, 2022 (Fri)

9.00 – 17:00

Welcome message:

It is our great pleasure to invite you to The Inaugural OU-WUT joint symposium on physical organic chemistry 2022, which is organized by Dr. Artur Kasprzak (Warsaw University of Technology, WUT) and Prof. Hidehiro Sakurai (Osaka University, OU). The symposium will take place in Warsaw, Poland.

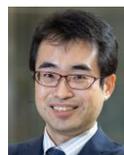

General scientific topics:

- Synthesis and properties of novel aromatic molecules and polymers.
- The chemistry of sumanene.
- The design of electrochemical ion sensors bearing π -conjugated molecular receptors.
- Crystallographic and theoretical studies on novel non-covalent systems, such as inclusion compounds.
- Novel porphyrin-based compounds.
- Heterogeneous catalysis.

Speakers:

Prof. Yumi Yakiyama (OU)

Prof. Akihito Konishi (OU)

Prof. Fumitaka Ishiwari (OU)

Prof. Yohei Takeda (OU)

Prof. Stanisław Ostrowski (WUT)

Dr. Artur Kasprzak (WUT)

Dr. Piotr A. Guńka (WUT)

Dr. Michał Patrzalek (UW)

Students from OU and WUT will also provide short presentations.
